

Training Experts
In The Middle East

Certified Human Resources Manager

Who should attend?

Human Resources managers and senior professionals in the function who seek to learn how to manage a human resources function from an executive perspective. Participants of this program will be required to submit one or more projects on HR related topics which will be covered during the program.

Objectives:

By the end of the program, participants will be able to:

- Define human resources and list its main functions and responsibilities.
- Align the HR function with organizational strategy.
- Introduce competency-based approaches to the main functions within an HR department.
- Assess the effectiveness of the human resources function through the use of an HR scorecard and relevant key performance indicators.
- Prepare for the management of a human resources function through the submittal of one or more HR-management-related projects.

CERTIFICATION REQUIRES TESTING & COMPLETION OF A PROJECT

Material: English Handouts | Duration : 70 hours

